

NOVEMBER 2024

Monthly Newsletter

HOME UPDATE

During November we had a 1960's afternoon with Terry Glead, animals from Browell's Wood Pets, outings, and Christmas crafts started. We all enjoyed a visit from our local fire brigade.

News from our November activities, trips & things to look forward to in December!

Garden Centres

GETTING FESTIVE

With all the Christmas displays in garden centres, we decided it was time to visit Notcutt's and Garson's Farm. There was so much to see, and Garson's displays were themed on Narnia, and of course we couldn't visit without stopping for tea and cake.

Musical Entertainment

GROOVY 60'S

Everyone had a fun afternoon when Terry Gleed entertained us at the beginning of November. We themed the afternoon on the 1960's. With staff dressed accordingly and residents wearing flowers in their hair, there was lots of laughter, singing and dancing. Terry will be back at Moor House in January as he is appearing in the pantomime 'Beauty and the Beast' in Lowestoft.

Sing-A-Long

MUSIC & DANCING WITH STEVE

Later in the month we had a musical afternoon with Steve Poole. When Steve started singing it wasn't long before residents were up dancing. There was a great deal of singing along too, especially when Steve sang so many of residents' favourite songs.

Pets Corner

FUN WITH FURRY FRIENDS

There wasn't a seat to be had in the lounge when Emma from Browell's Pet Therapy brought some cute animals to Moor House in November. A little French Bulldog called Winston, a cat, two rabbits, two guinea pigs, a fluffy chicken and amazingly, Kevin the Shetland pony.

Arts & Crafts

DECORATING FOR CHRISTMAS

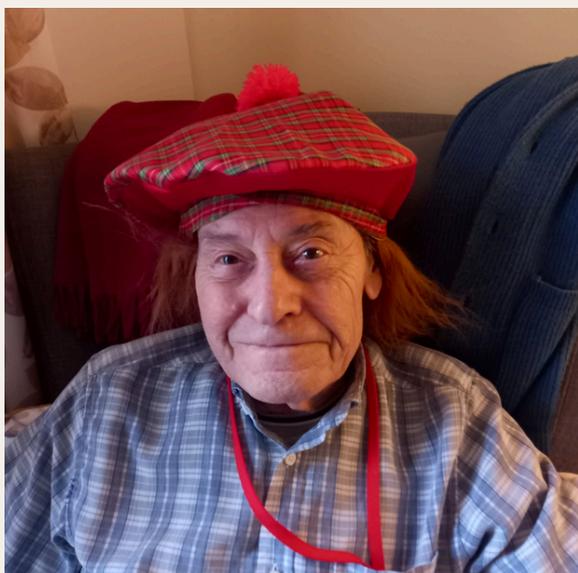

With Christmas crafts and residents decorating the lounge Christmas tree, it was certainly beginning to look a lot like Christmas, here at Moor House.

St. Andrew's Day

SCOTTISH CELEBRATIONS

On 30th November, residents had a fun Saturday morning with Rishy, on St. Andrew's Day. Jimmy Shand music was playing on Alexa and staff joined in with some Scottish dancing. There was lots of laughter as everyone wanted to wear the Scottish Tam O'Shanter. It brought back memories of Scotland to our lovely Scottish lady.
