

MARCH 2025
Monthly Newsletter

HOME UPDATE

During March, lots of days were spent getting some fresh air in the gardens and on walks. We also had a fun St. Patrick's Day, and there were beautiful flowers everywhere on Mothers' Day.

The day spent at Brooklands Museum, was great, and everyone particularly enjoyed the bus museum.

↓ In this newsletter you will find:

News from our March activities, trips & things to look forward to in April!

Outings

BROOKLAND'S MUSEUM

There was so much to see at Brookland's museum, so we took packed lunches for everyone, so that we could all make the most of our day.

Musical Entertainment

SINGING & DANCING

Terry Gleed, Chris Clarke and Paul Grainger entertained us. There was lots of dancing and singing along.

Memories

REMINISCING SESSION

Residents enjoyed looking through Carol's postcard scrapbook, with so many postcards bringing back memories and other residents shared their photos. Pat shared her book of childhood memories with Susan.

Arts & Crafts

KNITTING & PAINTING

We had some 'Arty Crafty Knitty' sort of days too.

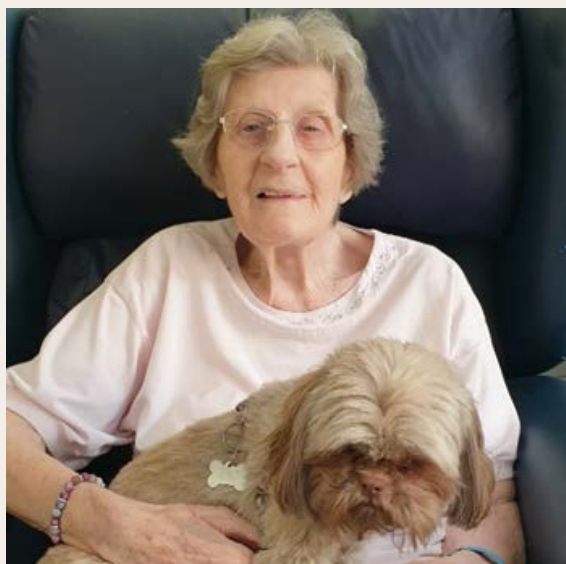

Nature

SUNNY WALKS

With so many lovely sunny days, residents were able to go on walks up to see the horses at the top of the road.

And on Mothers Day there were so many beautiful flowers around Moor House

Pets Corner

FUN WITH FURRY FRIENDS

Caroline visited again with Poppy and Daisy too.

Fun & Games

INDOOR ACTIVITIES

Scrabble, dominoes, golf, six pin bowling and a variety of bingo games took place in March.

Aromatherapy

RESIDENT PAMPERING

Residents had a lovely pampering afternoon with Heather from 'Compassionate Hands' aromatherapy.

Moor House Kitchen

FOOD HYGIENE

Due to the hard work of our chef Alan and his team, Moor House has once again been awarded the maximum Food Hygiene Rating
